Instructions for Petitioners Requesting Rezoning, Special Use Permit or Variance

In order to obtain a change in zoning, a special use permit, or a variance, you must obtain a petition, on the appropriate form, to the Macon County Planning and Zoning Department. A petitioner may submit maps, data, or other supplemental information that would be beneficial in explaining the intent or justifying the reason for the zoning action.

It is required that the present owner of the property be involved in any petition concerning that property. If someone other than the owner is filing a petition (i.e., a renter or a prospective buyer), the signature of the property owner must be included on the petition to show that the owner supports the proposed zoning action.

The petition application must be completed in its entirety. Failure to complete any aspect of the application may result in a delay of the petition until that time when the missing information is provided. The completed petition must be accompanied by check- payable to Macon County Treasurer- for the appropriate filing fee.

The filing fee is nonrefundable.

After the Planning and Zoning Department receives a complete petition, a hearing before the Macon County Zoning Board or Appeals (ZBA) will be scheduled. At least 15 days before the hearing, a notice of the hearing will be placed in the Decatur Herald & Review newspaper (legal ads) indicating the day the hearing will be held. The petitioner will also receive a notice by mail, indicating the day and time that zoning hearings will begin. Also about 15 days before the hearing, a sign will be placed on the property to notify local residents that some form of zoning action has been requested. All Zoning Board of Appeals meetings are held on the 5th floor of the Macon County Office Building at 8:30 a.m.

The Zoning Board of Appeals will listen to evidence at the hearing both for and against the petition. The ZBA will make the final decision on whether or not to grant the petition in Variance cases only. In all other cases, the ZBA makes a recommendation to the Macon County Board regarding the petition. Before the County Board reviews the case, the petition is sent to the Environmental, Education, Health, and Welfare Committee

(EEHW) of the County Board. The EEHW Committee reviews the record of the ZBA hearing and proposes a resolution to the Macon County Board to act on your petition. The County Board, at its next regular meeting, will review the case and will either make the final decision on the resolution at that time or the Board may send the petition back to the ZBA for more evidence and/ or reconsideration. In all cases except Variances, the County Board will ultimately make the final ruling on your petition. The times and dates of the next EEHW Committee meeting and the County Board meeting will be available the day of the ZBA hearing. While it is not required, it is recommended that the petitioner attend both of these meetings.
